

A Giving Business -- Top 100 US Companies

May 2011

Company	Primary Industry	Geographic Limitations	Areas of Interest
ExxonMobil	Oil & gas	Exxon Mobil Corporation Corporation Contributions Program: Giving on a national and international basis in areas of company operations, with emphasis on Baldwin and Mobile County AL, Anchorage AK, Torrance CA, Cortez CO, Washington DC, Joliet IL, Kingman KS, Baton Rouge and Chalmette LA, Billings MT, Clinton, Edison, Paulsboro and the Linden NJ area, Rochester NY, Baytown, Dallas, Fort Worth, Longview, Midland, Odessa, and the Houston TX area, Fairfax County VA, Lincoln, Sublette and Sweetwater counties WY, and in Africa, Canada, the Caribbean, Europe, the Far East, Latin America, and the Middle East; giving also to national organizations. Exxon Mobile Foundation: Giving on a national and international basis, primarily in areas of company operations in Baldwin and Mobile counties, Al Anchorage, Fairbanks, Juneau, and North Slope AK, Santa Barbara County and Torrance CA, Cortez and Rio Blanco County CO, Washington DC, LaGrange GA, Joliet IL, Kingman and Stevens County KS, Baton Rouge, Chalmette, Grand Isle, Gueydan, and Kaplan LA, Detroit MI, Billings MT, Clinton and Paulsboro NJ, Lee County NM, Rochester NY, Akron OH, Shawnee and Texas County OK, Exton PA, Baytown, Beaumont, Dallas, Fort Worth, Houston, Longview, Midland, Odessa, and Tyler TX, San Juan County UT, Fairfax County and Northern VA, and Lincoln, Subletter, and Sweetwater counties WY; giving also to national and international organizations.	Contributions Program: Elementary/secondary education; Higher education; Education; Environment; Health care Minorities; Women, Girls. No support for political or religious organizations or United Way supported organizations; low priority for disease specific organizations. No grants for individuals or endowments. Foundation: Higher education; Engineering school/education; Education, reading; Education; Environment, natural resources; Environment; Animals/wildlife, endangered species; Health care; Medical research; Human Services; Economic development; Community/Economic development; Science, formal/general education; Mathematics; Public policy, research; Public affairs.

A Giving Business -- Top 100 US Companies

May 2011

Walmart	Retailing	Corporate Giving Program: Giving on a national basis in areas of company operations. The Walmart Foundation: Giving on a national basis in areas of company operations with emphasis on AR, Washington, DC, IL, NY, TN , UT, and VA	The foundation supports organizations involved with education; workforce development and economic opportunity; health and wellness; and environmental sustainability. The foundation also funds hunger, disaster relief, human services, military and veterans, the disabled, and economically disadvantaged people and awards college scholarships.
BP	Oil & gas	BP Foundation: Giving primarily in AK, CA, Washington DC, Chicago IL, NJ, VA, TX, China, Germany, and the UK	Foundation: Supports organizations involved with arts and culture, education, the environment, disaster relief, human services, civil rights, community development, philanthropy, African-Americans, and economically disadvantage people.
Chevron	Oil & gas	Contributions Program and Chevron Community Foundation: Giving on a national and international basis in areas of company operations; giving also to national organizations. Chevron Global Fund: Giving to international organizations located in CA, Washington DC, Silver Springs MD, and Portland OR.	Contributions Program: Arts; Elementary/secondary education; higher education; Environment, natural resources; Environment; Health care; AIDS; Youth development; Human Services; International development; Civil/human rights, equal rights; Public Affairs; Minorities; Women. Foundation: Performing Arts, music; Arts; Education; Children, services; Science. No support for religious organizations, private foundations, or fraternal, social or veterans' organizations. No grants for general operating support, non-hospital capital campaigns, endowments, films, videos, or television projects, courtesy advertising, social functions, commemorative journalism meetings or political activities; no loans. Global Fund: Education, early childhood education; health care.

A Giving Business -- Top 100 US Companies

May 2011

Toyota Motors	Automotive	Corporate Giving Program: Giving primarily in northern KY and the greater Cincinnati OH area. Toyota USA Foundation: Giving primarily in areas of major company operations in AZ, CA, Washington DC, IL, MD, NM, NY, and TX; giving also to national organizations.	Corporate Giving Program: Makes charitable contributions to non-profit organizations involved with arts and culture, education, the environment, health and human services, mental health, diversity, community development, civi affairs, and minorities. Special emphasis is directed toward programs designed to target young people. Toyota USA Foundation: The foundation supports organizations involved with K-12 math and science education and higher education.
Conoco Phillips	Oil & gas	Corporate Giving Program: Giving primarily in areas of major company operations, with emphasis in AK, NM, OK, and TX	Corporate Giving Program: Makes charitable contributions to non-profit organizations involved with arts and culture, education, the environment, safety, youth development, human services, and civic affairs.
General Electric	Conglomerate	Corporate Giving Program: Giving primarily in areas of company operations. Foundation: Giving on a national and international basis, with an emphasis in Stamford CT, Atlanta GA, Jefferson County KY, New York NY, Cincinnati Oh, Erie PA, VA, Africa, China, Ghana, and Uganda	Corporate Giving Program: Education, Environmnet; Community/Economic development. No support for discriminatory organizations. Foundation: Supports programs designed to promote education; the environment; disaster relief; human services; public policy; and community success around the globe. No support for religious organizations. No grants to individuals (Except for employee-related scholarships) or for capital campaigns, endowments, or other special purpose campaigns; no loans, no equipment donations.
Allianz	Financial services	Corporate Giving Program: Giving in areas of company operations, with emphasis on the Twin Cities, MN metropolitan	Corporate Giving Program: Makes charitable contributions to programs designed to promote employment readiness; financial literacy; and the independence and self-sufficiency of senior citizens. No support for political organizations.

A Giving Business -- Top 100 US Companies

May 2011

Samsung Electronics	Conglomerate	Corporate Giving Program: Giving primarily in the Austin TX area	Corporate Giving Program: Makes charitable contributions to non-profit organizations involved with arts and culture, education, the environment, health and human services. No support for organizations not of direct benefit to the entire community, political or lobbying organizations, parent-supported organizations or private foundations. No grants to individuals.
Berkshire Hathaway	Conglomerate	Corporate Giving Program: Support is given on a national basis. Buffett Foundation: gives primarily in Albuquerque NM	Corporate Giving Program: General/operating support. Buffett Foundation: Recreation, camps; Children/youth services; Residential/custodial care; Christian agencies and churches.
General Motors	Automotive	Corporate Giving Program: Giving primarily in areas of company operations. Foundation: Giving primarily in areas of company operation; giving also to international organizations	Corporate Giving Program: Arts; Education; Environment, energy; Environment; Health care; Human Services; Civil/Human Rights, equal rights; Community/economic development; Public Policy, research; Public Affairs. Foundation: Support organizations involved with arts and culture, education, the environment, health, HIV/AIDS, medical research, human services, international economic development, diversity, community development, civic affairs, minorities, and women.
AXA	Financial Services	Foundation: Giving on a national basis with some emphasis in Washington DC, St. Peter MN, and New York NY	Foundation: Supports programs designed to improve the quality of life in communities where AXA Financial has a presence. The foundation operates and awards college scholarships through AXA Achievement, a program which provides youth with advice and access to succeed in college.

A Giving Business -- Top 100 US Companies

May 2011

Ford Motor Company	Automotive	Contributions Program: Giving on a national and international basis in areas of company operations, including in Asia, Australia, Canada, Europe, Mexico, and South America. El Paso County Salute to Education: giving is limited to El Paso and Hudspeth counties TX. Ford Motor Company Fund: Giving primarily in areas of company operations with emphasis on southeastern MI; giving also in Phoenix AZ, San Diego CA, Miami FL, Chicago IL, Detroit MI, Nashville TN, and San Antonio TX for Operation Goodwill.	Contributions Program: Visual arts; Performing arts; Arts; Higher Education; Business school/education; Education; Environment; Medical Research; Safety, Automotive Safety; Youth, services; International affairs; Engineering/Technology; Science Minorities. El Paso County Salute to Education: Awards college scholarships to graduating high school seniors located in El Paso and Hudspeth counties, Texas. Ford Motor Company Fund: Supports programs designed to promote innovation and education; community development and American heritage and diversity; and auto-related safety education.
Hewlett-Packard	Information Technology	Giving Program: Giving on a national and international basis in areas of company operations; giving on a national basis for Technology for Teaching and Technology for Community; giving also to regional and national organizations. Foundation: Giving on a national basis in areas of company operations, with an emphasis on Washington DC,; giving also to national organizations.	Giving Program: Special emphasis is directed toward programs designed to promote education opportunity and technology in underserved communities. No support for churches, political organizations, or discriminatory organizations. No grants to individuals (except scholarships), or for religious activities, advertising, sponsorships, contests, fundraising, promotional items, sports events, incentive programs, marketing, television and video production, research, or feasibility studies, sponsored programs, or political or military activities; no surplus, used or obsolete equipment donations; no equipment donations to be used in a private residence. Foundation: Supports programs designed to build bridges between science and the humanities; and enhance the understanding of science, engineering, technology, medicine, and academic organizations in the arts and human services field.

A Giving Business -- Top 100 US Companies

May 2011

Bank of America	Banking	Corporation Contributions Program: Giving on a national and international basis in areas of company operations, including Canada and the UK. Charitable Foundation: Giving on a national basis in areas of company operations; giving also in London, UK. Charitable Gift Fund: Giving primarily in MA.	Corporation Contributions Program: Arts, Education; Healthcare; Human Services; Community/Economic development. No support for athletic organizations or political organizations. No grants to individuals or for political activities, tuition or debt reduction. Charitable Foundation: Supports organizations involved with arts and culture, education, health, employment, housing, human services, community and economic development, and leadership development. Special emphasis is directed toward programs designed to address critical issues in local communities. No support for discriminatory organizations, political, labor, or fraternal organizations, civic clubs, religious organizations not of direct benefit to the entire community, or public or private pre-K-12 schools. No grants to individuals (except for Joe Martin Scholarships) or for fellowships, sports, athletic events or programs, travel-related events, student trips or tours, development or production of books, films, videos, or television programs, or memorial campaigns. Charitable Gift Fund: Administers a donor-advised fund that considers support in the areas of human services, urban programs, youth and family services, health care programs, and education. No support for national organizations. No grants to individuals, or for conferences, film production, travel, projects requiring multi-year commitment, endowment funds, research not under the aegis of recognized charitable organizations, publications, or matching gifts; no loans.
------------------------	----------------	---	--

A Giving Business -- Top 100 US Companies

May 2011

AT&T	Telecommunications	Foundation: Giving on a national basis in areas of company operations	Foundation: Supports organizations involved with education. Special emphasis is directed toward programs designed to create learning opportunities, promote academic and economic achievement, and address community needs. No support for religious organizations not of direct benefit to the entire community, or for political, discriminatory, or disease specific organizations, or medical clinics and research. No grants for capital campaigns, endowment funds, goodwill ads, sports programs or events, or cause-related marketing.
McKesson Corporation	Health care	Contributions Program: Giving primarily in the San Francisco Bay Area, CA. Foundation: Giving on a national basis in areas of company operations	Contributions Program: General charitable giving. Foundation: Supports programs designed to provide access to quality health care for low-income children, youth, and their families; awards college scholarships to pharmacy school students and inner-city high school students.
Cargill	Agriculture	Corporate Giving Program: Giving on a national basis in areas of company operations; also giving to regional, national, and international organizations active in areas of company operations. Foundation: Giving primarily in Minneapolis and its northern and western suburbs with emphasis on Brooklyn Center, Brooklyn Park, Crystal, Eden Prairie, Edina, Golden Valley, Hopkins, Minnetonka, New Hope, Plymouth, Robbinsdale, and St. Louis Park MN.	Corporate Giving Program: Makes charitable contributions to nonprofit organizations involved with nutrition, health, education, and the environment. No support for religious organizations not of direct benefit to the entire community. Foundation: Supports programs designed to educate socio-economically disadvantaged children and eliminate barriers to their educational success. Special emphasis directed toward programs designed to prepare children for school; improve academic performance; decrease the achievement gap; engage young people in learning; and create healthy and supportive family systems for young people. No support for religious organizations not of direct benefit to the entire community, individual schools, or organizations that serve mental or dental needs of children.

A Giving Business -- Top 100 US Companies

May 2011

Verizon	Telecommunications	Education Foundation: Giving primarily in Washington DC, Newark DE, New York NY, Austin TX, and Reston VA. Foundation: Giving on a national basis, with emphasis on CA, Washington DC, and NY; giving also in Argentina, India, PR, the Dominican Republic, Hong Kong, Phillipines, and Venezuela.	Education Foundation: Support organizations involved with education and technology integration. Special emphasis is directed toward programs designed to integrate technology into K-12 education. No grants to individuals or for capital campaigns or endowments; no employee matching gifts. Foundation: Supports programs designed to improve lives in literacy, knowledge, and readiness for the 21st century. Special emphasis is directed toward programs designed to promote education; literacy; domestic violence prevention; healthcare and accesibility; and internet safety. No support for private charities or foundations, religious organizations not of direct benefit to the entire community, religious organizations duplicating the work of other organizations in the same community, political candidates or organizations, discriminatory organizations, or lobbying organizations.
Nestle'	Food processing	Foundation: Giving primarily in CA, Washington DC, FL, OH	Foundation: Supports programs designed to promote education and literacy. Special emphasis is directed toward children and youth.
Siemens AG	Conglomerate	Contributions Program: Giving in areas of company operations. Foundation: Giving primarily in GA, IL, NV, TX, and VA; giving on a national basis for Siemens Competition in Math, Science, and Technology and Siemens Awards for Advance Placement	Contributions Program: Arts, higher education; Education; Environment; Health Care; Community/Economic development. Foundation: Support programs designed to enhance math and science education. Secondary school/education; Higher education, Education; Science, formal/general education; Mathematics; Science Minorities

A Giving Business -- Top 100 US Companies

May 2011

JPMorgan Chase	Financial services	Corporate Giving Program: Giving primarily in the CT, NJ, and NY tri-state area, AZ, CA, CO, DE, FL, IL, IN, KY, LA, MI, OH, OK, TX, UT, WV, WI, and on an international basis in areas of company operations; giving also to national organizations and U.S.-based international organizations. Foundation: Giving on a national basis in areas of company operations; giving also to U.S.-based international organizations active in areas of company operations abroad.	Corporate Giving Program: Special emphasis is directed toward organizations involved with community asset development, community life, and youth education. Foundation: Supports organizations involved with the arts and culture, education, employment, housing, parks, children, financial literacy, community development, public policy, and civic affairs. No support for religious, fraternal, social, or other membership organizations not of direct benefit to the entire community, volunteer operated organizations, or United Way member agencies.
Koch Industries	Conglomerate	Corporate Giving Program: Giving primarily in areas of company operations.	Corporate Giving Program: Makes charitable contributions to nonprofit organizations involved with education, the environment, and human services. No grants for individuals, or for trips, scholarships, or debt reduction; no employee matching gifts.
IBM	Information Technology	Corporate Giving Program: Giving on a national and international basis in areas of company operations; including in Africa, Asia, Australia, Canada, Europe, Latin America, the Middle East, and Oceania Foundation: Giving on a national and international basis, with emphasis on CA and NY, and in Asia, Victoria, Australia, Canada, China, India, Italy, and London England.	Corporate Giving Program: Arts; Adult/continuing education; Education; Employment; Community/economic development; people with Disabilities. No support for political, labor, religious, or fraternal organizations or sports groups or discriminatory organizations. No grants to individuals, or for fundraising, capital campaigns or construction or renovation, chairs, endowments, or scholarships or special events. Foundation: Supports organizations involved with arts and culture, K-12 education, the environment, health, employment, human services, diversity, science, public policy research, and minorities. No support for fraternal, labor, political or religious organizations or private or parochial schools.

A Giving Business -- Top 100 US Companies

May 2011

Cardinal Health	Health care	Corporate Giving Program: Giving on a national basis with emphasis on areas of company operations. Foundation: Giving primarily in Little Rock AR, San Diego CA, northern IL, Louisville and Radcliff KY, Albuquerque NM, and central OH; giving also to national and international organizations.	Corporate Giving Program: Arts; Health care; Cancer; Heart and circulatory diseases; Multiple Sclerosis; Diabetes; Human Services; Community/economic development. Foundation: Supports programs designed to improve healthcare efficiency, enhance quality, and enable cost-effectiveness; and build healthy communities. No support for fraternal, athletic, or social clubs, member-based organizations, including chamber of commerce, rotary clubs or IRS 501(c)(4) legions or associations, municipalities, including fire departments or police departments, organizations classified as IRS 509(a)(3), discriminatory organizations, organizations with divisive or litigious public agendas, religious organizations not of direct benefit to the entire community, sports teams, veteran, labor, or political organizations, private foundations, or deferred giving trusts, marching bands, or youth clubs.
Hitachi, Ltd.	Conglomerate	Corporate Giving Program: Giving primarily in areas of company operations.	Corporate Giving Program: Makes charitable contribution to nonprofit organizations involved with education, health care, the environment, arts, vocational training, and literacy, on a case by case basis. No support for religious, political, labor, or discriminatory organizations.
CVS Caremark	Retailing	Corporate Giving Program: Giving on a national basis in areas of company operations. Charitable Trust: Giving on a national basis in areas of company operations including Puerto Rico.	Corporate Giving Program: Education; Health care Children; people with Disabilities. Charitable Trust: Supports programs designed to serve children with disabilities; and uninsured or underserved people with healthcare needs.

A Giving Business -- Top 100 US Companies

May 2011

United Health Group	Health care	Foundation: Giving on a national basis in areas of company operations, with emphasis on Washington, DC, FL, MN, and NY.	Foundation: Supports programs designed to improve the quality and cost effectiveness of medical outcomes; expand access to health care services for those living in challenging circumstances; and enhance the well-being of communities.
Honda	Automotive	Corporate Giving Program: Giving primarily in OH, with emphasis on areas of company operations in west central OH. Foundation: Giving primarily in areas of company operations in west central OH, with emphasis on Allen, Auglaize, Champaign, Clark, Darke, Delaware, Franklin, Hardin, Logan, Madison, Marion, Mercer, Miami, Shelby and Union counties.	Corporate Giving Program: Education; Environment; Safety, automotive safety. No support for religious or political organizations, sports teams, fraternal or veterans' organizations, national health organizations or lobbying organizations. Foundation: Supports organizations involved with education, the environment, and safety.
Citigroup	Financial services	Corporate Giving Program: Giving in areas of company operations in the following states: AZ, CA, CT, DE, ID, IL, KY, MD, MA, MO, NC, NJ, NM, NY, PA, UT, VA, and Washington DC. Foundation: Giving on a national and international basis, limited to areas of company operations.	Corporate Giving Program: Humanities; Arts; Elementary/secondary education; Education, early childhood education; Higher education; Human services, financial counseling; Business/industry; Community Development. Foundation: Supports organizations and programs that enhance economic opportunities for individuals and families, particularly those in need. Provides grant support for programs that are aligned with it's economic empowerment mission, promote collaboration and effective use of philanthropic resources, engage it's employees, and demonstrate impact and positive outcomes. Special emphasis is directed toward programs that promote innovations in microfinance and microenterprise; college and careers; financial capability and asset building; and neighborhood revitalization. The foundation strives to partner with organizations that demonstrate a commitment to the environment and environmental innovations in each of the core priority areas.

A Giving Business -- Top 100 US Companies

May 2011

Wells Fargo	Banking/Financial services	Contributions Program: Giving primarily in areas of company operations.	Contributions Program: Elementary/secondary education; Human services; Economic development; Community/economic development. No support for fraternal, military, professional or other membership organizations, political parties, lobbying organizations, athletic organizations, or religious organizations.
BMW	Automotive	Corporate Giving Program: Giving primarily in areas of company operations.	Corporate Giving Program: Makes charitable contributions to nonprofit organizations involved with education, the environment, road safety, and community development.
Nissan Motors	Automotive	Corporate Giving Program: Giving primarily in southern CA, metropolitan Detroit MI, south central MS, middle TN, and Dallas and Fort Worth TX. Foundation: Giving limited to areas of company operations in southern CA, the Atlanta GA, metropolitan area, Detroit MI, south central MI, south central MS, the New York NY metropolitan area, middle TN, and Dallas and Fort Worth TX.	Corporate Giving Program: Education; Environment; Youth Development. Foundation: Supports educational programs designed to promote diverse cultural heritage. Arts, cultural/ethnic awareness; Education.
Panasonic Corporation	Electronics	Corporate Giving Program: Giving in areas of company operations and to national organizations. Foundation: Giving primarily in Washington DC, NJ, NY, OR, and VA.	Corporate Giving Program: Makes charitable contributions to nonprofit organizations involved with arts and culture, education, human services, and civic affairs. Special emphasis is directed toward programs designed to address the needs of women and diverse populations. No support for government or public agencies, political organizations or candidates, religious organizations not of direct benefit to the entire community, discriminatory organizations, fraternal organizations, or organizations posing a conflict of interest with Panasonic's values or mission. Foundation: Supports programs designed to improve public education. Education, reform: Education, public education; Elementary/secondary education; Education.

A Giving Business -- Top 100 US Companies

May 2011

Procter & Gamble	Consumer goods	Contributions Program: Giving primarily in areas of company operations. The Procter and Gamble Fund: Giving on a national and international basis primarily in areas of company operations, with emphasis on Washington DC, NY and OH, and in China, Costa Rica, Mexico, and Zimbabwe.	Contributions Program: Arts; Education; Environment; Health Care; Disasters, preparedness/services; International Human Rights; Social Sciences; Public Affairs. Fund: Supports food banks and organizations involved with arts and culture, education, clean water, animals, health, disaster relief, human services, international relief, community development, civic affairs, and economically disadvantaged people. Special attention is directed toward children of need. No support for religious organizations, political, legislative, or fraternal organizations or athletic, social, or veterans' organizations.
Amerisource Bergen	Health care	Contributions Program: Giving primarily in areas of company operations.	Contributions Program: Makes charitable contributions to nonprofit organizations involved with senior citizens. Special emphasis is directed toward programs that improve the mental, social, and physical well-being of the elderly.
American International Group (AIG)	Financial services	Corporate Giving Program: Giving on national and international basis in areas of company operations, with emphasis on NY. Foundation: Giving on a national and international basis.	Corporate Giving Program: Makes charitable contributions to nonprofit organizations involved with education, health, disaster relief, children services, disability services, community economic development, civic affairs, and economically disadvantaged people. No support for fraternal organizations or discriminatory organizations. No grants to individuals, or for sectarian activities, or political purposes.